4. While in Headquarters General Heinz will be briefed on Poland, Romania, East Germany, Chad, Morocco, Uganda and Angola. General Heinz also has asked for an assessment of the quality of the intelligence collected. We will also discuss with him the jockeying taking place in the Soviet leadership. He is interested in discussing recent CIA reports that outline the likely results of the power shuffle on Soviet military and Warsaw Pact forces. Finally, General Heinz would like to discuss European terrorist activities with DDO personnel.

5. A biographic profile on General Heinz is attached. Also attached is luncheon seating arrangements and menu.

BIOGRAPHIC PROFILE
BRIGADIER GENERAL EDWARD J. HEINZ

Brigadier General Edward J. Heinz is Director of Intelligence, Headquarters United States European Command, Stuttgart, Germany.

General Heinz was born August 30, 1932, in Hastings, Minnesota, where he completed high school in 1950. He graduated from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and geography. He also has a Master's degree in public administration from Auburn University. The General has completed Air Command and Staff College, and the Air War College, both located at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.

He completed Reserve Officers' Training Corps requirements at the University of Minnesota and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve. He was called to active duty at Reese Air Force Base, Texas, where he was assigned as school secretary for the 3500th Pilot Training Wing.

The General entered photo radar intelligence training in March 1957 and upon completion was assigned to the 67th Reconnaissance Technical Squadron, Yokota Air Base, Japan. He was subsequently assigned to Headquarters 5th Air Force, Fuchu Air Station, Japan, as Chief of the Special Reconnaissance Section in the Directorate of Intelligence. Upon his return to the United States in October 1960, General Heinz was assigned to Headquarters Tactical Air Command at Langley Air Force Base, Va, as staff photo interpreter until August 1965.

Upon graduation from Air Command and Staff College in June 1966, General Heinz was assigned to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's 6th Allied Tactical Air Force at Izmir, Turkey, as an air targets officer and reconnaissance adviser until September 1968. He then served as operations officer for the 12th Reconnaissance Intelligence Technical Squadron, Ton Son Nhut Air Base, Republic of Vietnam. In October 1969 he transferred to the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C. as a plans officer and subsequently as Deputy Assistant for Joint Matters until June 1973.

Following graduation from Air War College in July 1974, he returned to Air Force headquarters as Chief of the Imagery Branch. From April 1976 to July 1977, the General was the Executive and Military Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Command, Control and Intelligence. He subsequently commanded the 544th Aerospace Reconnaissance Technical Wing, Offutt Air Force Base, Neb. General Heinz was named Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence at Strategic Air Command headquarters, also at Offutt Air Force Base, in February 1979. The General moved to Peterson Air Force Base, Colo., in August 1979 and served as Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence at North American Aerospace Defense Command headquarters. He assumed his present duties in January 1982.

His military decorations and awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit with one oak leaf cluster, Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal and Air Force Commendation Medal.

He was promoted to Brigadier General August 1, 1981, with date of rank July 24, 1981.

General Heinz is married to the former Gloriann Gergen of Hastings, Minnesota. They have four daughters: Lorine, Carol, Diana and Leslie; and a son, Jeffrey Robert.
